

IJEA Lifetime Achievement Award Nomination Form

Each year, the IJEA seeks to honor individual retired scholastic media educators for a lifetime of dedication to scholastic media education. Please note that membership in IJEA is not required for this award. In selecting honorees, the IJEA seeks to recognize those individuals making a long-time commitment to scholastic media education but who are now retired. These can include:

- Those who are retired scholastic media educators and/or advisers of student media.
- Those who are or have been strong advocates for scholastic media education.

The award is presented at the annual awards luncheon in June; however, it may not be presented every year.

Past recipients of this award and other advisers who are members of IJEA are encouraged to submit nominations for this award. Annual deadline: Postmarked or received electronically by March 1 of the current school year.
